

Headquarters
Art Store, and New Stock of FOODS,
Fancy Box Station-
Stands,
Artists Material, Etc.,
at the lowest Given
ers. $50
windows.
at styles of mouldings
DE'S,
MAINE.
COOKING RANGE
that sells all the year round.
Free Standard,
Crawford,
oyal Clarrion,
The Oxford.
For Coat or Wood,
indow Glass,
umps, Lead Pipe,
Low Prices,
Norway, Me.
Goods!
0 cent Toys, OLIDAYS, in less variety.
SCRAP ALBUMS!
PHOTO
ARTIST.
A large assortment of Regina & Bessie's triple
Plate Silver Ware consisting of
table knives and forks,
Napkins, Sugar-Spoons, cake
Baskets, etc.
of all styles and prices.
in Nations not of date, or for gen-emption.
Store,
MAINE.
USE
Powder,
IE
powder
Etc. as their KAGES for by Norway, Maine.
Lynchville,
Bolsters Mills,
Greenwood.
BERS!
el or no heel).
skas.
INGS
S. and Bals isses' and
s. Prices
T'S,
AY, ME.
mply done.

Oxford County Advertiser.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 1, 1886.

NORWAY AND VICINITY.

The Christmas trees were loaded with presents.
J. M. Cummings has thirty horses in his stable here.
E. M. Rowe is running a milk cart in the village this winter.
There is to be $350 worth of new books purchased for the Library.
A nice line of velling can be found at Mrs. Moore's fancy goods store.
Sunday School concert at the Universalist church next Sunday evening.
Dr. C. E. Evans is our oldest physician. He began practice here in 1855.
J. E. Long is numbering the houses in the village. This is a praiseworthy improvement.
Some one has left a box containing a double child's set of knife, etc., at Mrs. Will Moore's.
Webb & Wakefield will enlarge their store in the early spring, and put in more goods.
We hear a good report of our schools. They are in excellent condition and give general satisfaction.
T. G. Goodwin, coffin and casket dealer, has been in the same business here since 1850.
C. N. Tubbs & Co. have a lot of auction blankets that will be sold at reduced prices.
W. H. Herick recently brought C. N. Tubbs & Co. a hog that weighed 60 lbs.
Domestic cheese, cranberries, pork and onions at F. H. Noyes' Grocery Store.
G. W. Holmes has his job shop at the Falls in working order and is now ready for business.
A pig intended for slaughter ran into a school room the other day. It created considerable merriment among the little folks.
Sheriff Bassett is making harnesses at his stable. He has a good office fitted up there and everything is in apple pie order.
E. W. Howe has been a dry goods and groceries merchant since 1850. He has made carpets a specialty for many years.
The Operetta given Christmas evening at the Universalist Church, was a success. The play was repeated at the Social Wednesday evening.
The Nealey Rifles of Lewiston gave a New Year's Drill and Ball at Norway Hall, Thursday evening Dec. 31. Missie, Perkins Orchestra of Lewiston.

Have you given your hens any ground oyster shells or cracked bones this winter? If not, you will get more eggs. For sale at F. H. Noyes' Grocery Store.
Plummer & Folsom of Portland have just begun the manufacture of confectionery in the town lately occupied by Dr. C. E. Evans. They are having all the business they can attend to.
The good sleighing and fine weather brought many people to the village to buy their holiday presents. A larger amount of goods than usual has been sold this year.
Carrie Small's lecture on "Holland and Hollanders" at the Methodist church Tuesday evening, was well received. She speaks to us, of this queer people and land in a very pleasing manner.
All kinds of worsted and yarn can be found at Mrs. Will Moore's fancy goods store, including Midnight, Zephyr, Fairy Snow, Shadings, etc. in every shade.
Mrs. Will Moore has just received a large lot of underwear, all new, direct from the manufacturer. Including "Hathaway" make, which is very nice, also a full line of merinos.
C. G. Mason has several kinds of hanging lamps. Some of the best made, and at a price more than others can be had for an inferior quality of cash. Call at Mason's and examine these lamps. It is the largest stock of lamps in this vicinity.
George R. Howe of Hartford, Ct., is to go into partnership with the firm of W. C. Chase of the shoe factory. It was very acceptable as Mr. Watson has not been able to work for a long time and his finances were running low.
Sloan & Rowe, manufacturers of clothing, are doing a good business. They make for Boston parties about 15,000 garments per annum. Nearly 300 women are employed at their homes, in different parts of the county.
Norway Brass Band will give a benefit drama "Woe at Last," at Norway Hall in about five weeks. This is a first-class drama and one that has never been played before in this section. We expect for the play a crowded house and the audience an excellent play.
C. B. Cummings employs 100 hands in the different kinds of business in which he is engaged. He is third only in the amount carried on by a single firm here, and the first as an individual business man. He does a business amounting to $100,000 per annum.
The Boston Journal says: On Christmas Eve Mr. Henry Eldridge of Leam, who has recently resigned as foreman of the E. W. Reed Shoe Company at Rochester, N. H., was presented with an elegant copy chair by the workmen. Mr. Eldridge is foreman of the booting department at O. S. Woodbury's shoe factory in Marshfield.

Mr. M. Cummings has one of the warmest and best places for his horses that we have seen. During the fall he fitted up a lot of stalls underneath the stable, in which his horses are kept. In winter it is so warm that there is no frost, and in summer it will be cool. It is well lighted, and has a cheap fire of fire. His former stable room is now used for carriages.
Vol. 1 of Gen. Grant's Memoirs has been placed in the Public Library and also the first three volumes of John's Encyclopedia. This last named work has been newly revised and the revision is now being sent. There are eight volumes in all and the remaining five will be placed in the Library as rapidly as they can be obtained. This valuable acquisition to the Library has been paid for by a public subscription from our citizens solicited by Dr. C. L. Fiske.
The sick in the stitching room at the shoe factory gave Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Norwester a very fine hanging lamp as a Christmas gift. The presentation was a very interesting episode in the stitching room. Mr. Norwester and wife were sent for by Mr. Chase and detained in his office until the arrangements for the surprise had been made and upon their returning they were greeted by the ladies under their charge and the lamp turned over in due and appropriate form.

Two cases of measles in town.
Robert Bangs has moved into his new house.
A new lot of perfumes at Crockett's Drug Store.
Girl wanted to do housework in a small family. See ad.
Wm. C. Cole keeps a good supply of coal for parlor and cook stoves.
The pay roll at the shoe factory last week was $3640.00.
Mr. Frank Noble is rapidly improving from his severe cold. He has been chopping in the woods a few weeks since.
Frankie Shackley at the Farm has been very sick with typhoid fever, but is now out and about.
Miss Libby, the photographer, invites your attention to her card and cabinet photos. See ad.
E. E. Millett, the new boot and shoe man, has an interesting article for the buyers of foot wear. He has a large stock. See ad.
Silver plated ware of all kinds at C. G. Mason's.
John M. Cummings has put up two new signs on the street in front of his two stables.
All kinds of sheet, tin and zinc work done by W. G. Leavitt at Mason's.
Woolen goods designed for cold weather can be found at Whitcomb & Smiley's. Mittens, leggings, hose, undergarments of all kinds and makes. They have some special trades in cloaks and shawls which the dress goods or should look into. The ladies are interested in their worsted boots which are just the thing in winter weather.
Lovell's Library all numbers from 1 to 700 now in, 10, 15, 20 cts., call or send for catalogue at Crockett's Drug Store.
For ladies outside garments you should visit S. B. & Z. S. Prince. They have marked their stock of cloaks down to insure quick sales. They have a full line of dress goods of all the leading makes. Hosiery, underwear, corsets, etc., in great abundance. They will be sure to get your money's worth and receive courteous attention.
The following are the officers elected at Norway Lodge No. 16, I. O. O. F., for the current year: W. M., P. J. Davies; V. G., J. F. Huntington; H. S., A. L. F. Pike; P. S., E. G. Burnell; Treas., E. Ames.
There was a good attendance at the gospel temperance meeting last Sunday afternoon despite the cold weather. E. H. Brown presided, and N. Hatch acted as Chaplain. Next Sunday afternoon the Rev. Mr. Hatch will preside and H. Smith of Oxford will be present and address the meeting.
The horse left at the Elm House stable has been claimed by its owner, Uriah Nason of Windham Hill. Mr. Nason and family went to a Christmas gathering and when they returned the hired man had taken the horse in money, articles of clothing and other things and left with the team. Mr. Nason refused to pay for the horse until the hired man had been paid. The horse was found in the team at the Elm House stable, at Norway.
The C. L. S. C. will meet with Miss Russell Jan. 11. Roll call; Essay, "Effect of French Revolution upon Italy," Mrs. Fuller; music; memory test; The Paris Wren, etc.; by the C. L. S. C.; "Garibaldi"; Mrs. Tilton; select reading; Belle Dutton; music; essay, "Beauty and the Beast," Mrs. Wiswau; question box, etc., music. There was an unusually large attendance at the last meeting.
Dairies and almanacs for 1886 at Crockett's Drug Store.
The following are officers of Norway Grange elected for 1886: W. H. Tracy, Master; Edwin A. Cox, Overseer; A. H. Stuart, Lecturer; E. B. Folsom, Steward; W. H. Hobbs, Asst. Steward; J. A. Bean, Chaplain; M. J. Steward, Treasurer; C. G. Mason, Sec. retary; Calvin Richardson, Gate Keeper; Miss L. M. Watson, Pomona; Miss Fannie Grace, Flora; Miss Emma E. Folsom, Sec. retary; Mrs. W. H. Tracy, Lady Pomona.
We are having a nice term of school in Dist. No. 15 under the instruction of Clara B. Ripley from Bethel.
Daniel Holt, Jr., is getting out the lumber and crates for the new house, which he intends building in the spring.
Gerry and Coffin are inventing a new mode of occupation in a man can sit or sleigh in which a man can sit and propel it by turning a crank.
Christmas has come and old Santa did not fail to work for a long time and his finances were running low.
Sloan & Rowe, manufacturers of clothing, are doing a good business. They make for Boston parties about 15,000 garments per annum. Nearly 300 women are employed at their homes, in different parts of the county.
Norway Brass Band will give a benefit drama "Woe at Last," at Norway Hall in about five weeks. This is a first-class drama and one that has never been played before in this section. We expect for the play a crowded house and the audience an excellent play.
C. B. Cummings employs 100 hands in the different kinds of business in which he is engaged. He is third only in the amount carried on by a single firm here, and the first as an individual business man. He does a business amounting to $100,000 per annum.
The Boston Journal says: On Christmas Eve Mr. Henry Eldridge of Leam, who has recently resigned as foreman of the E. W. Reed Shoe Company at Rochester, N. H., was presented with an elegant copy chair by the workmen. Mr. Eldridge is foreman of the booting department at O. S. Woodbury's shoe factory in Marshfield.

Mr. M. Cummings has one of the warmest and best places for his horses that we have seen. During the fall he fitted up a lot of stalls underneath the stable, in which his horses are kept. In winter it is so warm that there is no frost, and in summer it will be cool. It is well lighted, and has a cheap fire of fire. His former stable room is now used for carriages.
Vol. 1 of Gen. Grant's Memoirs has been placed in the Public Library and also the first three volumes of John's Encyclopedia. This last named work has been newly revised and the revision is now being sent. There are eight volumes in all and the remaining five will be placed in the Library as rapidly as they can be obtained. This valuable acquisition to the Library has been paid for by a public subscription from our citizens solicited by Dr. C. L. Fiske.
The sick in the stitching room at the shoe factory gave Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Norwester a very fine hanging lamp as a Christmas gift. The presentation was a very interesting episode in the stitching room. Mr. Norwester and wife were sent for by Mr. Chase and detained in his office until the arrangements for the surprise had been made and upon their returning they were greeted by the ladies under their charge and the lamp turned over in due and appropriate form.

Two cases of measles in town.
Robert Bangs has moved into his new house.
A new lot of perfumes at Crockett's Drug Store.
Girl wanted to do housework in a small family. See ad.
Wm. C. Cole keeps a good supply of coal for parlor and cook stoves.
The pay roll at the shoe factory last week was $3640.00.
Mr. Frank Noble is rapidly improving from his severe cold. He has been chopping in the woods a few weeks since.
Frankie Shackley at the Farm has been very sick with typhoid fever, but is now out and about.
Miss Libby, the photographer, invites your attention to her card and cabinet photos. See ad.
E. E. Millett, the new boot and shoe man, has an interesting article for the buyers of foot wear. He has a large stock. See ad.
Silver plated ware of all kinds at C. G. Mason's.
John M. Cummings has put up two new signs on the street in front of his two stables.
All kinds of sheet, tin and zinc work done by W. G. Leavitt at Mason's.
Woolen goods designed for cold weather can be found at Whitcomb & Smiley's. Mittens, leggings, hose, undergarments of all kinds and makes. They have some special trades in cloaks and shawls which the dress goods or should look into. The ladies are interested in their worsted boots which are just the thing in winter weather.
Lovell's Library all numbers from 1 to 700 now in, 10, 15, 20 cts., call or send for catalogue at Crockett's Drug Store.
For ladies outside garments you should visit S. B. & Z. S. Prince. They have marked their stock of cloaks down to insure quick sales. They have a full line of dress goods of all the leading makes. Hosiery, underwear, corsets, etc., in great abundance. They will be sure to get your money's worth and receive courteous attention.
The following are the officers elected at Norway Lodge No. 16, I. O. O. F., for the current year: W. M., P. J. Davies; V. G., J. F. Huntington; H. S., A. L. F. Pike; P. S., E. G. Burnell; Treas., E. Ames.
There was a good attendance at the gospel temperance meeting last Sunday afternoon despite the cold weather. E. H. Brown presided, and N. Hatch acted as Chaplain. Next Sunday afternoon the Rev. Mr. Hatch will preside and H. Smith of Oxford will be present and address the meeting.
The horse left at the Elm House stable has been claimed by its owner, Uriah Nason of Windham Hill. Mr. Nason and family went to a Christmas gathering and when they returned the hired man had taken the horse in money, articles of clothing and other things and left with the team. Mr. Nason refused to pay for the horse until the hired man had been paid. The horse was found in the team at the Elm House stable, at Norway.
The C. L. S. C. will meet with Miss Russell Jan. 11. Roll call; Essay, "Effect of French Revolution upon Italy," Mrs. Fuller; music; memory test; The Paris Wren, etc.; by the C. L. S. C.; "Garibaldi"; Mrs. Tilton; select reading; Belle Dutton; music; essay, "Beauty and the Beast," Mrs. Wiswau; question box, etc., music. There was an unusually large attendance at the last meeting.
Dairies and almanacs for 1886 at Crockett's Drug Store.
The following are officers of Norway Grange elected for 1886: W. H. Tracy, Master; Edwin A. Cox, Overseer; A. H. Stuart, Lecturer; E. B. Folsom, Steward; W. H. Hobbs, Asst. Steward; J. A. Bean, Chaplain; M. J. Steward, Treasurer; C. G. Mason, Sec. retary; Calvin Richardson, Gate Keeper; Miss L. M. Watson, Pomona; Miss Fannie Grace, Flora; Miss Emma E. Folsom, Sec. retary; Mrs. W. H. Tracy, Lady Pomona.
We are having a nice term of school in Dist. No. 15 under the instruction of Clara B. Ripley from Bethel.
Daniel Holt, Jr., is getting out the lumber and crates for the new house, which he intends building in the spring.
Gerry and Coffin are inventing a new mode of occupation in a man can sit or sleigh in which a man can sit and propel it by turning a crank.
Christmas has come and old Santa did not fail to work for a long time and his finances were running low.
Sloan & Rowe, manufacturers of clothing, are doing a good business. They make for Boston parties about 15,000 garments per annum. Nearly 300 women are employed at their homes, in different parts of the county.
Norway Brass Band will give a benefit drama "Woe at Last," at Norway Hall in about five weeks. This is a first-class drama and one that has never been played before in this section. We expect for the play a crowded house and the audience an excellent play.
C. B. Cummings employs 100 hands in the different kinds of business in which he is engaged. He is third only in the amount carried on by a single firm here, and the first as an individual business man. He does a business amounting to $100,000 per annum.
The Boston Journal says: On Christmas Eve Mr. Henry Eldridge of Leam, who has recently resigned as foreman of the E. W. Reed Shoe Company at Rochester, N. H., was presented with an elegant copy chair by the workmen. Mr. Eldridge is foreman of the booting department at O. S. Woodbury's shoe factory in Marshfield.

Mr. M. Cummings has one of the warmest and best places for his horses that we have seen. During the fall he fitted up a lot of stalls underneath the stable, in which his horses are kept. In winter it is so warm that there is no frost, and in summer it will be cool. It is well lighted, and has a cheap fire of fire. His former stable room is now used for carriages.
Vol. 1 of Gen. Grant's Memoirs has been placed in the Public Library and also the first three volumes of John's Encyclopedia. This last named work has been newly revised and the revision is now being sent. There are eight volumes in all and the remaining five will be placed in the Library as rapidly as they can be obtained. This valuable acquisition to the Library has been paid for by a public subscription from our citizens solicited by Dr. C. L. Fiske.
The sick in the stitching room at the shoe factory gave Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Norwester a very fine hanging lamp as a Christmas gift. The presentation was a very interesting episode in the stitching room. Mr. Norwester and wife were sent for by Mr. Chase and detained in his office until the arrangements for the surprise had been made and upon their returning they were greeted by the ladies under their charge and the lamp turned over in due and appropriate form.

Two cases of measles in town.
Robert Bangs has moved into his new house.
A new lot of perfumes at Crockett's Drug Store.
Girl wanted to do housework in a small family. See ad.
Wm. C. Cole keeps a good supply of coal for parlor and cook stoves.
The pay roll at the shoe factory last week was $3640.00.
Mr. Frank Noble is rapidly improving from his severe cold. He has been chopping in the woods a few weeks since.
Frankie Shackley at the Farm has been very sick with typhoid fever, but is now out and about.
Miss Libby, the photographer, invites your attention to her card and cabinet photos. See ad.
E. E. Millett, the new boot and shoe man, has an interesting article for the buyers of foot wear. He has a large stock. See ad.
Silver plated ware of all kinds at C. G. Mason's.
John M. Cummings has put up two new signs on the street in front of his two stables.
All kinds of sheet, tin and zinc work done by W. G. Leavitt at Mason's.
Woolen goods designed for cold weather can be found at Whitcomb & Smiley's. Mittens, leggings, hose, undergarments of all kinds and makes. They have some special trades in cloaks and shawls which the dress goods or should look into. The ladies are interested in their worsted boots which are just the thing in winter weather.
Lovell's Library all numbers from 1 to 700 now in, 10, 15, 20 cts., call or send for catalogue at Crockett's Drug Store.
For ladies outside garments you should visit S. B. & Z. S. Prince. They have marked their stock of cloaks down to insure quick sales. They have a full line of dress goods of all the leading makes. Hosiery, underwear, corsets, etc., in great abundance. They will be sure to get your money's worth and receive courteous attention.
The following are the officers elected at Norway Lodge No. 16, I. O. O. F., for the current year: W. M., P. J. Davies; V. G., J. F. Huntington; H. S., A. L. F. Pike; P. S., E. G. Burnell; Treas., E. Ames.
There was a good attendance at the gospel temperance meeting last Sunday afternoon despite the cold weather. E. H. Brown presided, and N. Hatch acted as Chaplain. Next Sunday afternoon the Rev. Mr. Hatch will preside and H. Smith of Oxford will be present and address the meeting.
The horse left at the Elm House stable has been claimed by its owner, Uriah Nason of Windham Hill. Mr. Nason and family went to a Christmas gathering and when they returned the hired man had taken the horse in money, articles of clothing and other things and left with the team. Mr. Nason refused to pay for the horse until the hired man had been paid. The horse was found in the team at the Elm House stable, at Norway.
The C. L. S. C. will meet with Miss Russell Jan. 11. Roll call; Essay, "Effect of French Revolution upon Italy," Mrs. Fuller; music; memory test; The Paris Wren, etc.; by the C. L. S. C.; "Garibaldi"; Mrs. Tilton; select reading; Belle Dutton; music; essay, "Beauty and the Beast," Mrs. Wiswau; question box, etc., music. There was an unusually large attendance at the last meeting.
Dairies and almanacs for 1886 at Crockett's Drug Store.
The following are officers of Norway Grange elected for 1886: W. H. Tracy, Master; Edwin A. Cox, Overseer; A. H. Stuart, Lecturer; E. B. Folsom, Steward; W. H. Hobbs, Asst. Steward; J. A. Bean, Chaplain; M. J. Steward, Treasurer; C. G. Mason, Sec. retary; Calvin Richardson, Gate Keeper; Miss L. M. Watson, Pomona; Miss Fannie Grace, Flora; Miss Emma E. Folsom, Sec. retary; Mrs. W. H. Tracy, Lady Pomona.
We are having a nice term of school in Dist. No. 15 under the instruction of Clara B. Ripley from Bethel.
Daniel Holt, Jr., is getting out the lumber and crates for the new house, which he intends building in the spring.
Gerry and Coffin are inventing a new mode of occupation in a man can sit or sleigh in which a man can sit and propel it by turning a crank.
Christmas has come and old Santa did not fail to work for a long time and his finances were running low.
Sloan & Rowe, manufacturers of clothing, are doing a good business. They make for Boston parties about 15,000 garments per annum. Nearly 300 women are employed at their homes, in different parts of the county.
Norway Brass Band will give a benefit drama "Woe at Last," at Norway Hall in about five weeks. This is a first-class drama and one that has never been played before in this section. We expect for the play a crowded house and the audience an excellent play.
C. B. Cummings employs 100 hands in the different kinds of business in which he is engaged. He is third only in the amount carried on by a single firm here, and the first as an individual business man. He does a business amounting to $100,000 per annum.
The Boston Journal says: On Christmas Eve Mr. Henry Eldridge of Leam, who has recently resigned as foreman of the E. W. Reed Shoe Company at Rochester, N. H., was presented with an elegant copy chair by the workmen. Mr. Eldridge is foreman of the booting department at O. S. Woodbury's shoe factory in Marshfield.

Mr. M. Cummings has one of the warmest and best places for his horses that we have seen. During the fall he fitted up a lot of stalls underneath the stable, in which his horses are kept. In winter it is so warm that there is no frost, and in summer it will be cool. It is well lighted, and has a cheap fire of fire. His former stable room is now used for carriages.
Vol. 1 of Gen. Grant's Memoirs has been placed in the Public Library and also the first three volumes of John's Encyclopedia. This last named work has been newly revised and the revision is now being sent. There are eight volumes in all and the remaining five will be placed in the Library as rapidly as they can be obtained. This valuable acquisition to the Library has been paid for by a public subscription from our citizens solicited by Dr. C. L. Fiske.
The sick in the stitching room at the shoe factory gave Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Norwester a very fine hanging lamp as a Christmas gift. The presentation was a very interesting episode in the stitching room. Mr. Norwester and wife were sent for by Mr. Chase and detained in his office until the arrangements for the surprise had been made and upon their returning they were greeted by the ladies under their charge and the lamp turned over in due and appropriate form.

Two cases of measles in town.
Robert Bangs has moved into his new house.
A new lot of perfumes at Crockett's Drug Store.
Girl wanted to do housework in a small family. See ad.
Wm. C. Cole keeps a good supply of coal for parlor and cook stoves.
The pay roll at the shoe factory last week was $3640.00.
Mr. Frank Noble is rapidly improving from his severe cold. He has been chopping in the woods a few weeks since.
Frankie Shackley at the Farm has been very sick with typhoid fever, but is now out and about.
Miss Libby, the photographer, invites your attention to her card and cabinet photos. See ad.
E. E. Millett, the new boot and shoe man, has an interesting article for the buyers of foot wear. He has a large stock. See ad.
Silver plated ware of all kinds at C. G. Mason's.
John M. Cummings has put up two new signs on the street in front of his two stables.
All kinds of sheet, tin and zinc work done by W. G. Leavitt at Mason's.
Woolen goods designed for cold weather can be found at Whitcomb & Smiley's. Mittens, leggings, hose, undergarments of all kinds and makes. They have some special trades in cloaks and shawls which the dress goods or should look into. The ladies are interested in their worsted boots which are just the thing in winter weather.
Lovell's Library all numbers from 1 to 700 now in, 10, 15, 20 cts., call or send for catalogue at Crockett's Drug Store.
For ladies outside garments you should visit S. B. & Z. S. Prince. They have marked their stock of cloaks down to insure quick sales. They have a full line of dress goods of all the leading makes. Hosiery, underwear, corsets, etc., in great abundance. They will be sure to get your money's worth and receive courteous attention.
The following are the officers elected at Norway Lodge No. 16, I. O. O. F., for the current year: W. M., P. J. Davies; V. G., J. F. Huntington; H. S., A. L. F. Pike; P. S., E. G. Burnell; Treas., E. Ames.
There was a good attendance at the gospel temperance meeting last Sunday afternoon despite the cold weather. E. H. Brown presided, and N. Hatch acted as Chaplain. Next Sunday afternoon the Rev. Mr. Hatch will preside and H. Smith of Oxford will be present and address the meeting.
The horse left at the Elm House stable has been claimed by its owner, Uriah Nason of Windham Hill. Mr. Nason and family went to a Christmas gathering and when they returned the hired man had taken the horse in money, articles of clothing and other things and left with the team. Mr. Nason refused to pay for the horse until the hired man had been paid. The horse was found in the team at the Elm House stable, at Norway.
The C. L. S. C. will meet with Miss Russell Jan. 11. Roll call; Essay, "Effect of French Revolution upon Italy," Mrs. Fuller; music; memory test; The Paris Wren, etc.; by the C. L. S. C.; "Garibaldi"; Mrs. Tilton; select reading; Belle Dutton; music; essay, "Beauty and the Beast," Mrs. Wiswau; question box, etc., music. There was an unusually large attendance at the last meeting.
Dairies and almanacs for 1886 at Crockett's Drug Store.
The following are officers of Norway Grange elected for 1886: W. H. Tracy, Master; Edwin A. Cox, Overseer; A. H. Stuart, Lecturer; E. B. Folsom, Steward; W. H. Hobbs, Asst. Steward; J. A. Bean, Chaplain; M. J. Steward, Treasurer; C. G. Mason, Sec. retary; Calvin Richardson, Gate Keeper; Miss L. M. Watson, Pomona; Miss Fannie Grace, Flora; Miss Emma E. Folsom, Sec. retary; Mrs. W. H. Tracy, Lady Pomona.
We are having a nice term of school in Dist. No. 15 under the instruction of Clara B. Ripley from Bethel.
Daniel Holt, Jr., is getting out the lumber and crates for the new house, which he intends building in the spring.
Gerry and Coffin are inventing a new mode of occupation in a man can sit or sleigh in which a man can sit and propel it by turning a crank.
Christmas has come and old Santa did not fail to work for a long time and his finances were running low.
Sloan & Rowe, manufacturers of clothing, are doing a good business. They make for Boston parties about 15,000 garments per annum. Nearly 300 women are employed at their homes, in different parts of the county.
Norway Brass Band will give a benefit drama "Woe at Last," at Norway Hall in about five weeks. This is a first-class drama and one that has never been played before in this section. We expect for the play a crowded house and the audience an excellent play.
C. B. Cummings employs 100 hands in the different kinds of business in which he is engaged. He is third only in the amount carried on by a single firm here, and the first as an individual business man. He does a business amounting to $100,000 per annum.
The Boston Journal says: On Christmas Eve Mr. Henry Eldridge of Leam, who has recently resigned as foreman of the E. W. Reed Shoe Company at Rochester, N. H., was presented with an elegant copy chair by the workmen. Mr. Eldridge is foreman of the booting department at O. S. Woodbury's shoe factory in Marshfield.

Mr. M. Cummings has one of the warmest and best places for his horses that we have seen. During the fall he fitted up a lot of stalls underneath the stable, in which his horses are kept. In winter it is so warm that there is no frost, and in summer it will be cool. It is well lighted, and has a cheap fire of fire. His former stable room is now used for carriages.
Vol. 1 of Gen. Grant's Memoirs has been placed in the Public Library and also the first three volumes of John's Encyclopedia. This last named work has been newly revised and the revision is now being sent. There are eight volumes in all and the remaining five will be placed in the Library as rapidly as they can be obtained. This valuable acquisition to the Library has been paid for by a public subscription from our citizens solicited by Dr. C. L. Fiske.
The sick in the stitching room at the shoe factory gave Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Norwester a very fine hanging lamp as a Christmas gift. The presentation was a very interesting episode in the stitching room. Mr. Norwester and wife were sent for by Mr. Chase and detained in his office until the arrangements for the surprise had been made and upon their returning they were greeted by the ladies under their charge and the lamp turned over in due and appropriate form.

Two cases of measles in town.
Robert Bangs has moved into his new house.
A new lot of perfumes at Crockett's Drug Store.
Girl wanted to do housework in a small family. See ad.
Wm. C. Cole keeps a good supply of coal for parlor and cook stoves.
The pay roll at the shoe factory last week was $3640.00.
Mr. Frank Noble is rapidly improving from his severe cold. He has been chopping in the woods a few weeks since.
Frankie Shackley at the Farm has been very sick with typhoid fever, but is now out and about.
Miss Libby, the photographer, invites your attention to her card and cabinet photos. See ad.
E. E. Millett, the new boot and shoe man, has an interesting article for the buyers of foot wear. He has a large stock. See ad.
Silver plated ware of all kinds at C. G. Mason's.
John M. Cummings has put up two new signs on the street in front of his two stables.
All kinds of sheet, tin and zinc work done by W. G. Leavitt at Mason's.
Woolen goods designed for cold weather can be found at Whitcomb & Smiley's. Mittens, leggings, hose, undergarments of all kinds and makes. They have some special trades in cloaks and shawls which the dress goods or should look into. The ladies are interested in their worsted boots which are just the thing in winter weather.
Lovell's Library all numbers from 1 to 700 now in, 10, 15, 20 cts., call or send for catalogue at Crockett's Drug Store.
For ladies outside garments you should visit S. B. & Z. S. Prince. They have marked their stock of cloaks down to insure quick sales. They have a full line of dress goods of all the leading makes. Hosiery, underwear, corsets, etc., in great abundance. They will be sure to get your money's worth and receive courteous attention.
The following are the officers elected at Norway Lodge No. 16, I. O. O. F., for the current year: W. M., P. J. Davies; V. G., J. F. Huntington; H. S., A. L. F. Pike; P. S., E. G. Burnell; Treas., E. Ames.
There was a good attendance at the gospel temperance meeting last Sunday afternoon despite the cold weather. E. H. Brown presided, and N. Hatch acted as Chaplain. Next Sunday afternoon the Rev. Mr. Hatch will preside and H. Smith of Oxford will be present and address the meeting.
The horse left at the Elm House stable has been claimed by its owner, Uriah Nason of Windham Hill. Mr. Nason and family went to a Christmas gathering and when they returned the hired man had taken the horse in money, articles of clothing and other things and left with the team. Mr. Nason refused to pay for the horse until the hired man had been paid. The horse was found in the team at the Elm House stable, at Norway.
The C. L. S. C. will meet with Miss Russell Jan. 11. Roll call; Essay, "Effect of French Revolution upon Italy," Mrs. Fuller; music; memory test; The Paris Wren, etc.; by the C. L. S. C.; "Garibaldi"; Mrs. Tilton; select reading; Belle Dutton; music; essay, "Beauty and the Beast," Mrs. Wiswau; question box, etc., music. There was an unusually large attendance at the last meeting.
Dairies and almanacs for 1886 at Crockett's Drug Store.
The following are officers of Norway Grange elected for 1886: W. H. Tracy, Master; Edwin A. Cox, Overseer; A. H. Stuart, Lecturer; E. B. Folsom, Steward; W. H. Hobbs, Asst. Steward; J. A. Bean, Chaplain; M. J. Steward, Treasurer; C. G. Mason, Sec. retary; Calvin Richardson, Gate Keeper; Miss L. M. Watson, Pomona; Miss Fannie Grace, Flora; Miss Emma E. Folsom, Sec. retary; Mrs. W. H. Tracy, Lady Pomona.
We are having a nice term of school in Dist. No. 15 under the instruction of Clara B. Ripley from Bethel.
Daniel Holt, Jr., is getting out the lumber and crates for the new house, which he intends building in the spring.
Gerry and Coffin are inventing a new mode of occupation in a man can sit or sleigh in which a man can sit and propel it by turning a crank.
Christmas has come and old Santa did not fail to work for a long time and his finances were running low.
Sloan & Rowe, manufacturers of clothing, are doing a good business. They make for Boston parties about 15,000 garments per annum. Nearly 300 women are employed at their homes, in different parts of the county.
Norway Brass Band will give a benefit drama "Woe at Last," at Norway Hall in about five weeks. This is a first-class drama and one that has never been played before in this section. We expect for the play a crowded house and the audience an excellent play.
C. B. Cummings employs 100 hands in the different kinds of business in which he is engaged. He is third only in the amount carried on by a single firm here, and the first as an individual business man. He does a business amounting to $100,000 per annum.
The Boston Journal says: On Christmas Eve Mr. Henry Eldridge of Leam, who has recently resigned as foreman of the E. W. Reed Shoe Company at Rochester, N. H., was presented with an elegant copy chair by the workmen. Mr. Eldridge is foreman of the booting department at O. S. Woodbury's shoe factory in Marshfield.

Mr. M. Cummings has one of the warmest and best places for his horses that we have seen. During the fall he fitted up a lot of stalls underneath the stable, in which his horses are kept. In winter it is so warm that there is no frost, and in summer it will be cool. It is well lighted, and has a cheap fire of fire. His former stable room is now used for carriages.
Vol. 1 of Gen. Grant's Memoirs has been placed in the Public Library and also the first three volumes of John's Encyclopedia. This last named work has been newly revised and the revision is now being sent. There are eight volumes in all and the remaining five will be placed in the Library as rapidly as they can be obtained. This valuable acquisition to the Library has been paid for by a public subscription from our citizens solicited by Dr. C. L. Fiske.
The sick in the stitching room at the shoe factory gave Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Norwester a very fine hanging lamp as a Christmas gift. The presentation was a very interesting episode in the stitching room. Mr. Norwester and wife were sent for by Mr. Chase and detained in his office until the arrangements for the surprise had been made and upon their returning they were greeted by the ladies under their charge and the lamp turned over in due and appropriate form.

Two cases of measles in town.
Robert Bangs has moved into his new house.
A new lot of perfumes at Crockett's Drug Store.
Girl wanted to do housework in a small family. See ad.
Wm. C. Cole keeps a good supply of coal for parlor and cook stoves.
The pay roll at the shoe factory last week was $3640.00.
Mr. Frank Noble is rapidly improving from his severe cold. He has been chopping in the woods a few weeks since.
Frankie Shackley at the Farm has been very sick with typhoid fever, but is now out and about.
Miss Libby, the photographer, invites your attention to her card and cabinet photos. See ad.
E. E. Millett, the new boot and shoe man, has an interesting article for the buyers of foot wear. He has a large stock. See ad.
Silver plated ware of all kinds at C. G. Mason's.
John M. Cummings has put up two new signs on the street in front of his two stables.
All kinds of sheet, tin and zinc work done by W. G. Leavitt at Mason's.
Woolen goods designed for cold weather can be found at Whitcomb & Smiley's. Mittens, leggings, hose, undergarments of all kinds and makes. They have some special trades in cloaks and shawls which the dress goods or should look into. The ladies are interested in their worsted boots which are just the thing in winter weather.
Lovell's Library all numbers from 1 to 700 now in, 10, 15, 20 cts., call or send for catalogue at Crockett's Drug Store.
For ladies outside garments you should visit S. B. & Z. S. Prince. They have marked their stock of cloaks down to insure quick sales. They have a full line of dress goods of all the leading makes. Hosiery, underwear, corsets, etc., in great abundance. They will be sure to get your money's worth and receive courteous attention.
The following are the officers elected at Norway Lodge No. 16, I. O. O. F., for the current year: W. M., P. J. Davies; V. G., J. F. Huntington; H. S., A. L. F. Pike; P. S., E. G. Burnell; Treas., E. Ames.
There was a good attendance at the gospel temperance meeting last Sunday afternoon despite the cold weather. E. H. Brown presided, and N. Hatch acted as Chaplain. Next Sunday afternoon the Rev. Mr. Hatch will preside and H. Smith of Oxford will be present and address the meeting.
The horse left at the Elm House stable has been claimed by its owner, Uriah Nason of Windham Hill. Mr. Nason and family went to a Christmas gathering and when they returned the hired man had taken the horse in money, articles of clothing and other things and left with the team. Mr. Nason refused to pay for the horse until the hired man had been paid. The horse was found in the team at the Elm House stable, at Norway.
The C. L. S. C. will meet with Miss Russell Jan. 11. Roll call; Essay, "Effect of French Revolution upon Italy," Mrs. Fuller; music; memory test; The Paris Wren, etc.; by the C. L. S. C.; "Garibaldi"; Mrs. Tilton; select reading; Belle Dutton; music; essay, "Beauty and the Beast," Mrs. Wiswau; question box, etc., music. There was an unusually large attendance at the last meeting.
Dairies and almanacs for 1886 at Crockett's Drug Store.
The following are officers of Norway Grange elected for 1886: W. H. Tracy, Master; Edwin A. Cox, Overseer; A. H. Stuart, Lecturer; E. B. Folsom, Steward; W. H. Hobbs, Asst. Steward; J. A. Bean, Chaplain; M. J. Steward, Treasurer; C. G. Mason, Sec. retary; Calvin Richardson, Gate Keeper; Miss L. M. Watson, Pomona; Miss Fannie Grace, Flora; Miss Emma E. Folsom, Sec. retary; Mrs. W. H. Tracy, Lady Pomona.
We are having a nice term of school in Dist. No. 15 under the instruction of Clara B. Ripley from Bethel.
Daniel Holt, Jr., is getting out the lumber and crates for the new house, which he intends building in the spring.
Gerry and Coffin are inventing a new mode of occupation in a man can sit or sleigh in which a man can sit and propel it by turning a crank.
Christmas has come and old Santa did not fail to work for a long time and his finances were running low.
Sloan & Rowe, manufacturers of clothing, are doing a good business. They make for Boston parties about 15,000 garments per annum. Nearly 300 women are employed at their homes, in different parts of the county.
Norway Brass Band will give a benefit drama "Woe at Last," at Norway Hall in about five weeks. This is a first-class drama and one that has never been played before in this section. We expect for the play a crowded house and the audience an excellent play.
C. B. Cummings employs 100 hands in the different kinds of business in which he is engaged. He is third only in the amount carried on by a single firm here, and the first as an individual business man. He does a business amounting to $100,000 per annum.
The Boston Journal says: On Christmas Eve Mr. Henry Eldridge of Leam, who has recently resigned as foreman of the E. W. Reed Shoe Company at Rochester, N. H., was presented with an elegant copy chair by the workmen. Mr. Eldridge is foreman of the booting department at O. S. Woodbury's shoe factory in Marshfield.

Mr. M. Cummings has one of the warmest and best places for his horses that we have seen. During the fall he fitted up a lot of stalls underneath the stable, in which his horses are kept. In winter it is so warm that there is no frost, and in summer it will be cool. It is well lighted, and has a cheap fire of fire. His former stable room is now used for carriages.
Vol. 1 of Gen. Grant's Memoirs has been placed in the Public Library and also the first three volumes of John's Encyclopedia. This last named work has been newly revised and the revision is now being sent. There are eight volumes in all and the remaining five will be placed in the Library as rapidly as they can be obtained. This valuable acquisition to the Library has been paid for by a public subscription from our citizens solicited by Dr. C. L. Fiske.
The sick in the stitching room at the shoe factory gave Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Norwester a very fine hanging lamp as a Christmas gift. The presentation was a very interesting episode in the stitching room. Mr. Norwester and wife were sent for by Mr. Chase and detained in his office until the arrangements for the surprise had been made and upon their returning they were greeted by the ladies under their charge and the lamp turned over in due and appropriate form.

Two cases of measles in town.

